Mia and the Watercolor Paints

Mia loved watercolor painting. She liked to mix blue and yellow to make green. One sunny afternoon, Mia sat at the kitchen table with her paint set. She used a small brush and a cup of water. First, she painted a big blue sky. Then she painted soft green grass. Next, she added a red flower and a yellow sun. Mia smiled when she saw her picture. Her mom hung the painting on the fridge. Mia felt proud because she made art with her own hands.
